

Annalena Baerbock, Germany's Candidate for the Post of President of the 80th General Assembly of the United Nations (2025/2026)

Curriculum Vitae

Annalena Baerbock has served as Germany's Federal Minister for Foreign Affairs since December 2021. In this role, she has been a strong advocate for the multilateral system with the United Nations at its core.

In 2018, she was elected Co-Chairperson of Alliance 90/The Greens and held the position of party leader until 2022. She has been an elected member of the German Bundestag since 2013. Prior to that, she served as chairperson of her party in the federal state of Brandenburg.

Before being elected to the Bundestag herself, Annalena Baerbock advised her party's parliamentary group in the German Bundestag on matters of foreign and security policy. From 2005 to 2008, she served as Head of Office and staff member to Member of the European Parliament Elisabeth Schroedter.

Annalena Baerbock was born in Hanover on 15 December 1980. She holds a Master of Laws (LLM) from the London School of Economics and Political Science and an undergraduate degree in Political Science from Hamburg University.