Ad Hoc Working Group of the Whole of the General Assembly

The Twenty-first Meeting

United Nations Headquarters, New York

4-5 September 2024

INFORMATION FOR PARTICIPANTS

Participation

1. In accordance with paragraph 204 of General Assembly resolution 65/37 A of 7 December 2010, the meetings of the Ad Hoc Working Group of the Whole are open to:
 - a) Member States and Observers of the United Nations;
 - b) Relevant intergovernmental organizations and non-governmental organizations in consultative status with the Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC), in accordance with past practice of the United Nations; and
 - c) Relevant scientific institutions and major groups identified in Agenda 21 that request an invitation to participate in the meetings of the Ad Hoc Working Group of the Whole.
2. Requests for invitations from relevant scientific institutions and major groups identified in Agenda 21 should be sent to the Division for Ocean Affairs and the Law of the Sea (DOALOS) and include information on their relevance and competence in the matters addressed by the Ad Hoc Working Group of the Whole.
3. For information on how to obtain consultative status with the ECOSOC, please see the following website: <http://csonet.org/?menu=83>.

United Nations Grounds Pass

Member States

Registration (request for a United Nations grounds pass) of official delegations of Member States for the Ad Hoc Working Group of the Whole is handled by the United Nations Protocol and Liaison Service (Protocol Office) through the online “eRegistration system”, which is available through the e-deleGATE portal at (<https://edelegate.un.int>). Official delegations must go through the “designated eRegistration focal points” of their respective Permanent Missions in New York, who have access to the eRegistration system, to obtain United Nations grounds passes. Registration is now open through 26 August 2024.

Delegations wishing to obtain information on the “eRegistration system” may refer to the updated “Guidelines on e-Registration” and “Frequently asked questions” on the Protocol website at <https://www.un.org/dgacm/en/content/protocol/meetings>.

Intergovernmental organizations

4. Representatives from intergovernmental organizations invited to attend the meetings of the Ad Hoc Working Group of the Whole should communicate their request to attend the meeting directly to the Protocol and Liaison Service at unprotocol@un.org, with a copy to the Division for Ocean Affairs and the Law of the Sea (DOALOS), Office of Legal Affairs (doalos@un.org, with copy to Ms. Elena Temnova temnova@un.org), for issuance of grounds pass, which will allow access to United Nations premises. Communications should include the names and contact details of the representatives of the intergovernmental organization concerned.

5. Representatives from intergovernmental organizations that have maintained an office in New York or have enrolled in the eRegistration system should follow the same registration procedure as Member States by using the eRegistration system.

6. Representatives of intergovernmental organizations must pick up their United Nations grounds pass directly from the United Nations Pass and Identification Unit at 320 East 45th Street (between 1st and 2nd Avenue) on the ground floor, prior to attending the meeting. A hard copy of that email must be presented by the representatives together with a valid passport or Government photo ID to the United Nations Pass and Identification Unit for the issuance of a UN grounds pass.

7. Representatives from intergovernmental organizations that do not have an office in New York or have not enrolled in the eRegistration system should register for the meeting by submitting a letter stamped and signed by the head of the organization (with the names and functional titles of the delegation attending the meeting) to the Division for Ocean Affairs and Law of the Sea (Att. Ms. Elena Temnova, email: temnova@un.org, copied to doalos@un.org), in order to obtain an event pass for access to the United Nations premises. A suggested template for such communication is attached hereto. Details of the distribution of the event passes for registered participants will be communicated in due time.

Non-governmental organizations and relevant scientific institutions and major groups identified in Agenda 21

8. Representatives of non-governmental organizations in consultative status with the Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC) must provide the name of the organization they represent, exactly as listed in the integrated Civil Society Organizations (iCSO) System database: <https://esango.un.org/>. Failure to do so may delay or result in the rejection of the requested registration. For the issuance of United Nations grounds passes for non-governmental organizations with consultative status with ECOSOC, please visit <http://csonet.org/?menu=86>.

9. Other non-governmental organizations, relevant scientific institutions, and major groups identified in Agenda 21 invited to attend the meeting should provide the names and contact details of their representatives by 23 August 2024 to the Division for Ocean Affairs and the Law of the Sea (doalos@un.org, with copy to Ms. Elena Temnova temnova@un.org) for issuance of United Nations grounds passes in order to have access to United Nations premises.

10. DOALOS will communicate directly to the non-governmental organization representatives where and when their United Nations grounds pass may be picked up. A valid passport or Government photo ID identifying the representative should be presented at the time of pick-up of the grounds pass.
