

Ministry
of Foreign Affairs

Pledges of the Republic of Poland
on the rule of law at the national and international levels

1. The Republic of Poland will prepare programme on dissemination of knowledge on the rule of law, especially at secondary education (lower and upper) as well as higher education.
2. The Republic of Poland intends to sign the International Convention for the Protection of all Persons from Enforced Disappearance, done at New York, 20 December 2006, by the end of 2013.
3. The Republic of Poland has embarked on ratification procedure of the Convention on the Prohibition of the Use, Stockpiling, Production and Transfer of Anti-Personnel Mines and on their Destruction, done at Oslo, on 18 September 1997 and intends to complete it by the end of 2012.
4. The Republic of Poland will periodically review its treaty obligations in order to provide the highest level of compliance resulting from the development of international law.
5. The Republic of Poland will prepare basic foundations on opening public resources in domain of public information, science, education and cultural heritage.
6. The Republic of Poland will prepare model on-line lawmaking (which shall ensure transparency of submitting comments and tracing amendments), so as to address in a comprehensive manner the growing needs of the functioning of an Open Government, to introduce new quality of civic consultations that are fully transparent and based on partnership, as well as anticipate expectations concerning the legal and institutional framework of participatory democracy.
7. The Republic of Poland intends to reform court procedure with a view to accelerating judicial proceedings, their simplification, and the introduction of electronic procedure in civil matters, by the end of 2013.
8. The Republic of Poland intends to strengthen legal protection of children through an extension of the catalogue of crimes related to the sexual abusing of children. Poland also intends to adopt legislation aimed at preventing the recurring victimization of children, victims of sexual crimes and of trafficking in human being, in the course of criminal process, by the end of 2013.

Ministry
of Foreign Affairs

Pledges of the Republic of Poland
on the rule of law at the national and international levels

1. The Republic of Poland will prepare programme on dissemination of knowledge on the rule of law, especially at secondary education (lower and upper) as well as higher education.
2. The Republic of Poland intends to sign the International Convention for the Protection of all Persons from Enforced Disappearance, done at New York, 20 December 2006, by the end of 2013.
3. The Republic of Poland has embarked on ratification procedure of the Convention on the Prohibition of the Use, Stockpiling, Production and Transfer of Anti-Personnel Mines and on their Destruction, done at Oslo, on 18 September 1997 and intends to complete it by the end of 2012.
4. The Republic of Poland will periodically review its treaty obligations in order to provide the highest level of compliance resulting from the development of international law.
5. The Republic of Poland will prepare basic foundations on opening public resources in domain of public information, science, education and cultural heritage.
6. The Republic of Poland will prepare model on-line lawmaking (which shall ensure transparency of submitting comments and tracing amendments), so as to address in a comprehensive manner the growing needs of the functioning of an Open Government, to introduce new quality of civic consultations that are fully transparent and based on partnership, as well as anticipate expectations concerning the legal and institutional framework of participatory democracy.
7. The Republic of Poland intends to reform court procedure with a view to accelerating judicial proceedings, their simplification, and the introduction of electronic procedure in civil matters, by the end of 2013.
8. The Republic of Poland intends to strengthen legal protection of children through an extension of the catalogue of crimes related to the sexual abusing of children. Poland also intends to adopt legislation aimed at preventing the recurring victimization of children, victims of sexual crimes and of trafficking in human being, in the course of criminal process, by the end of 2013.