
Chapter IX

Decisions taken by the Security Council in the exercise of its other functions and powers

Note

During the period under review, the Security Council took a number of decisions in the exercise of its functions and powers other than those relating to the maintenance of international peace and security. The Council took decisions relating to (a) the election of members of the International Court of Justice; (b) the termination of a trusteeship agreement and the completion of the mandate of the Trusteeship Council under the Charter, which are dealt with in chapter VI; (c) the question of the admission of new Members to the United Nations, which is dealt with in chapter VII; and (d) the consideration of the draft annual report of the Security Council to the General Assembly.
