TENTATIVE FORECAST OF THE PROGRAMME OF WORK OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL FOR THE MONTH OF NOVEMBER 2020

For information only/not an official document

This tentative forecast of the programme of work of the Security Council has been prepared by the Secretariat for the President of the Council. The forecast covers in particular those matters that may be taken up during the month pursuant to earlier decisions of the Council. The fact that a matter is or is not included in the forecast carries no implication that it will or will not be taken up during the month: the actual programme of work will be determined by developments and the views of members of the Council.

TENTATIVE FORECAST OF THE PROGRAMME OF WORK OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL FOR THE MONTH OF NOVEMBER 2020

AFRICA

Burundi: SG to provide written report with recommendations on UN engagement with Burundi
PSC letter of 23 July 2020 (S/2020/766)

Second para.: The 20 May elections in Burundi, together with the evolution of the peace and security situation in Burundi, necessitate a review of the United Nations engagement with Burundi. In his inaugural address on 18 June, President Ndayishimiye committed to strengthen relations with African countries, regional organisations, such as the AU and the EAC, and international organisations. In view of these elements and the continued need for engagement and support by international partners to foster reconciliation, peace and security in Burundi, the Security Council requests the Secretary-General to conduct and provide the Security Council, no later than 31 October 2020, a written report with recommendations assessing the challenges facing Burundi and the scope and modalities of the United Nations engagement in the country, alongside the AU and the region, to support Burundi in achieving sustainable peace, reconciliation and development.

The report of the Secretary-General is expected to be issued in November 2020.

Central African region: SG reports on UNOCA, including on the situation in the Lake Chad region

Resolution 2349 (2017) of 31 March 2017

Para.34: Requests the Secretary-General to produce a written report within five months on the United Nations' assessment of the situation in the Lake Chad Basin Region as it relates to elements of this resolution, particularly regarding the progress made and remaining challenges, and possible measures for consideration, including with respect to achieving greater coherence of efforts in the context of overlapping regional strategies, and thereafter to include these elements in regular reporting by UNOCA and UNOWAS.

S/PRST/2018/17 of 10 August 2018

Last para.: The Security Council requests the Secretary-General to provide a written report to it on the situation in Central Africa and UNOCA's activities, including on the situation in the Lake Chad region as requested in resolution 2349 \(2017\), by 30 November 2018 and every six months thereafter.

The report of the Secretary-General is expected to be issued in November 2020.
