7. The situation in the Central African Republic

During the period under review, the Security Council held seven meetings, adopted three resolutions under Chapter VII of the Charter and issued one presidential statement in connection with the situation in the Central African Republic. Except for three meetings convened to adopt a decision of the Council, all meetings held in 2018 took the form of briefings. The Council also held one meeting with countries contributing troops and police to the United Nations Multidimensional Integrated Stabilization Mission in the Central African Republic (MINUSCA) pursuant to resolution 1353 (2001). More information on meetings, including on participants, speakers and outcomes, is given in the table below.

During 2018, the Council heard regular briefings by the Special Representative of the Secretary General 69 Held on 17 October 2018 under the item entitled “Meeting of the Security Council with the troop- and police-contributing countries pursuant to resolution 1353 (2001), annex II, sections A and B”; see S/PV.8374.

for the Central African Republic and Head of MINUSCA, consistent with the four-month reporting schedule established under resolution 2387 (2017). The Council also heard a briefing by the Special Representative of the African Union to the Central African Republic, the Force Commander of the European Union Military Training Mission in the Central African Republic and the Managing Director for Africa of the European External Action Service.

The briefings were focused on the security situation in the country and the extension and consolidation of State authority beyond Bangui, the priorities for MINUSCA, including enhanced protection of civilians, and the training and deployment of the Armed Forces of the Central African Republic by the European Union Military Training Mission in cooperation with MINUSCA. The briefings were also focused on the political situation and the progress of the African Initiative for Peace and Reconciliation in the Central African Republic, as well as on the strengthening of national judicial institutions and the preparations for the establishment of the Special Criminal Court. The Council was also briefed on the persistently dire humanitarian situation in the country, including the population displacement and the continued attacks on peacekeepers and humanitarian workers. In addition, the Council heard briefings by the Chair of the Central African Republic configuration of the Peacebuilding Commission on its work and initiatives in support of the Government of the Central African Republic, including the assistance provided to the establishment of the Special Criminal Court, and the Chair of the Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 2127 (2013) concerning the Central African Republic, who reported on the implementation of the sanctions measures and his visit to the country from 2 to 5 October 2018.

These issues were also addressed by the Council in its decisions during the reporting period. By its resolution 2399 (2018), adopted under Chapter VII of the Charter, the Council extended until 31 January 2019 the arms embargo, the asset freeze and the travel ban imposed against individuals and entities designated by the Committee established pursuant to resolution 2127 (2013). The Council further introduced, for the first time, incitement and support to incitement to violence, especially if based on religious or ethnic grounds, as criteria for the designation of individuals or entities by the Committee. The Council also extended the mandate of the Panel of Experts on the Central African Republic until 28 February 2019.

In a presidential statement issued on 13 July 2018, the Council expressed concern regarding the persistent violence against civilians, United Nations peacekeepers and humanitarian workers and condemned the rise of incitement to violence and hostility towards MINUSCA. The Council also reaffirmed its support to the African Initiative for Peace and Reconciliation in the Central African Republic and its road map, and stressed the need to operationalize the Special Criminal Court, establish the Commission on Truth, Justice, Reparation and Reconciliation and bolster national accountability mechanisms. The Council welcomed the ongoing good collaboration between Central African Republic authorities and international partners, including MINUSCA and the European Union Military Training Mission, for the progressive and sustainable redeployment of the armed forces of the Central African Republic trained by the European Union Military Training Mission and expressed its deep concern for the humanitarian situation in the Central African Republic, including the situation of internally displaced persons and refugees, while noting the number of people in need of humanitarian assistance. The Council also encouraged Member States to scale up funding to respond to the humanitarian needs identified in the humanitarian response plan for 2018.

During the period under review, the Council renewed the mandate of MINUSCA twice. On 15 November 2018, by its resolution 2446 (2018), the Council extended the mandate of the Mission for one month, until 15 December 2018, in the context of mandate renewal negotiations. On 13 December 2018, the Council adopted – albeit not unanimously – resolution 2448 (2018), by which it extended the mandate of MINUSCA until 15 November 2019. The Council decided that the Mission’s mandate would include four main priority tasks, namely, the protection of civilians, the provision of good offices and support to the peace process, the facilitation of the creation of a secure environment for the delivery of humanitarian
