those parameters. He further noted that the process had been once again “neither transparent nor consultative”. The other members of the Council who had abstained explained that fundamental principles for finding a political solution raised during the negotiations had not been taken into consideration and that the issue of the self-determination of the people of Western Sahara was not sufficiently reflected in the final text.

2. The situation in Liberia

During the period under review, the Security Council held one meeting in connection with the situation in Liberia and issued one presidential statement. The meeting took the form of a briefing. More information on the meeting, including on participants, speakers and outcomes, is given in the table below.

On 19 April 2018, the Council heard briefings by the Assistant Secretary-General for Rule of Law and Security Institutions, the Deputy Permanent Representative of Sweden, on behalf of the Chair of the Liberia configuration of the Peacebuilding Commission, and the Chief Executive Officer of the company Liberty and Justice. Against the backdrop of the final report of the Secretary-General and the drawdown and closure of the United Nations Mission in Liberia (UNMIL), the Assistant Secretary-General for Rule of Law and Security Institutions focused on the political situation and economic prospects in Liberia, as well as on the impact and legacy of the Mission in the country. On behalf of the Chair of the Liberia configuration of the Peacebuilding Commission, the Deputy Permanent Representative of Sweden focused on the future of the country and the need to address the remaining root causes of the conflict and the key structural reforms set out in the peacebuilding plan. The Chief Executive Officer of Liberty and Justice briefed the Council on the role of civil society groups in achieving peace in Liberia and emphasized the need to strengthen the private sector and encourage investment in the country.\textsuperscript{19}

At the meeting, the Council also heard a statement by the representative of Liberia, invited under rule 37 of the provisional rules of procedure. In his statement, the representative expressed gratitude to the Economic Community of West African States (ECOWAS), the African Union, the European Union and all organs of the United Nations, as well as the Peacebuilding Commission. He assured that the challenges still looming would remain “front and centre” for the Government. He also remarked that Liberia, once a beneficiary of a peacekeeping mission, had become a contributing nation to the United Nations Multidimensional Integrated Stabilization Mission in Mali.\textsuperscript{20}

At the meeting, Council members commended the work performed by UNMIL during its presence in Liberia and noted the need for continued engagement by the United Nations and the international community after its closure. Council members noted the difficulties faced by the Government of Liberia in addressing the remaining root causes of conflict, praised its efforts in establishing State institutions aimed at implementing the peacebuilding plan following the closure of UNMIL and expressed their appreciation for the efforts of the Liberian authorities in prioritizing the Sustainable Development Goals in the country’s national development plans.

At the meeting, the Council issued a presidential statement, in which the Council commended the remarkable achievements and notable progress made by the people and Government of Liberia to consolidate lasting peace and stability since 2003 and their continued commitment to respect and develop democratic processes and institutions. The Council also commended the Government for its preparation and execution of the 2017 legislative and presidential elections and expressed its appreciation to ECOWAS, the African Union and all organs of the United Nations, as well as the Peacebuilding Commission. He assured that the challenges still looming would remain “front and centre” for the Government.
