urged further cooperation in addressing protracted problems of armed groups, the humanitarian situation, including Ebola, and socioeconomic development.\textsuperscript{64} With respect to Burundi, at the meeting in March,\textsuperscript{65} the representative of the United Kingdom called on international partners to continue supporting the East African Community in its efforts to end the political crisis in Burundi and preserve the Arusha Peace and Reconciliation Agreement. He also encouraged all stakeholders to consider whether the Peace, Security and Cooperation Framework could play an enhanced role in promoting dialogue in Burundi. At the meeting in October,\textsuperscript{66} the representatives of the United States and the United Kingdom expressed concern about the restrictions on freedom of assembly and expression; they also emphasized the importance of good governance, a point that was echoed by Germany.

5. The situation concerning the Democratic Republic of the Congo

During the period under review, the Council held seven meetings and adopted three resolutions under Chapter VII of the Charter in relation to the situation concerning the Democratic Republic of the Congo. Three meetings were convened to adopt a decision of the Council and four took the form of briefings.\textsuperscript{67} The Council also met twice with countries contributing troops and police to the United Nations Organization Stabilization Mission in the Democratic Republic of the Congo (MONUSCO), pursuant to resolution 1353 (2001). More information on the meetings, including on participants, speakers and outcomes, is given in the table below.

The Council heard regular briefings by the Special Representative of the Secretary-General for the Democratic Republic of the Congo and Head of MONUSCO. In her four briefings to the Council, the Special Representative outlined the ongoing democratic process, including the progress made with regard to the reform agendas of the President, Félix Tshilombo Tshisekedi, and the remaining security challenges, in particular in the country’s eastern region, which was also affected by the Ebola epidemic. Other briefers included the President of the Independent National Electoral Commission, the Permanent Observer of the African Union to the United Nations, the President of the Conférence épiscopale nationale du Congo and the Executive Director of a civil society organization, Afia Mama. In addition, the Council heard a briefing by the Chair of the Committee established pursuant to resolution 1533 (2004) concerning the Democratic Republic of the Congo.

In 2019, the briefings and deliberations of the Council were focused mainly on the progress of the Government’s democratic process following the presidential election held in December 2018, the transition strategy of MONUSCO in the context of the volatile security and humanitarian situations and the efforts of the regional organizations to strengthen the cooperation among the countries of the Great Lakes region.

Concerning the democratic process following the election, Council members welcomed the smooth transition of power and President Tshisekedi’s pledges to build democracy and the rule of law, while also expressing concern over the ongoing violence, the Ebola outbreak and the precarious humanitarian situation in the country. During the meetings on 11 January and 18 March, Council members also noted the postponement of elections in Beni, Butembo and Yumbi and called for the successful facilitation of the holding of the remaining elections in those areas, which had been scheduled to be held at the end March 2019.

On the security situation, Council members expressed concerns regarding the continuing violence and attacks against civilians and MONUSCO and the Armed Forces of the Democratic Republic of the Congo by the Allied Democratic Forces, while strongly condemning the attacks by armed groups on Ebola response teams. In that context, Council members discussed the adjustment of the configuration of MONUSCO and its activities in line with the Mission’s priority mandates in the protection of civilians; Council members also encouraged the strengthening of the implementation of the demobilization, disarmament and reintegration process by the authorities of the Democratic Republic of the Congo. In particular, the representative of the United States encouraged the transition to a civilian life for fighters rather than simply absorbing them into the armed forces, and the representative of Poland emphasized that the process had to be at the centre of the stabilization of the security situation in the country.

On the efforts of the regional organizations to strengthen cooperation among the countries of the Great Lakes region, Council members expressed support for the work done by the observation missions dispatched by such regional organizations as the International Conference on the Great Lakes Region, the Southern African Development Community and the African Union to monitor the elections in the Democratic Republic of the Congo. Speakers also recognized the mediation efforts undertaken by regional organizations in support of the implementation of the Peace, Security and Cooperation Framework for the Democratic Republic of the Congo and the Region.

In addition, in 2019, the Council focused on the work of the Committee pursuant to resolution 1533 (2004). On 7 June 2019, the members of the Group of Experts on the Democratic Republic of the Congo submitted, for the Council’s attention, the final report on the Ebola outbreak and the precarious humanitarian situation in the country. During the meetings on 11 January and 18 March, Council members also noted the situation in the country. During the meetings on 11 January and 18 March, Council members also noted the growing concern and emphasized the need for continued cooperation and coordination to address the Ebola epidemic. More information on that item, see part I, sect. 11.

68 Held on 14 March and 3 December 2019, under the item entitled “Meeting of the Security Council with the troop- and police-contributing countries pursuant to resolution 1353 (2001), annex II, sections A and B”; see S/PV.8483 and S/PV.8677.
69 The humanitarian situation caused by renewed cases of Ebola in the Democratic Republic of the Congo was also considered by the Council under the item entitled “Peace and security in Africa”, under which the Council issued a presidential statement on 2 August, in which it expressed concern and emphasized the need for continued cooperation and coordination to address the Ebola outbreak. (S/PRST/2019/6, first and fourth paragraphs). For more information on that item, see part I, sect. 11.

of the Group, in which it concluded that, despite the relatively peaceful transfer of power and the growing number of armed groups willing to surrender, numerous local and foreign armed groups, in particular the Allied Democratic Forces, continued to pose a serious security threat. On 26 June 2019, the Council unanimously adopted resolution 2478 (2019), by which it extended the sanctions measures until 1 July 2020 and the mandate of the Group of Experts until 1 August 2020. On 24 July 2019, the Council heard the briefing of the Chair of the Committee, in which he focused on the Committee’s activities over the previous 12 months and on his visit to the country from 27 April to 6 May 2019. He also highlighted the positive public statements made by the incoming President on the work of MONUSCO and the international community. The Chair stated that he planned to “capitalize on the momentum” of his visit to the Democratic Republic of the Congo by continuing to build channels of communication with relevant States and promoting a better understanding of the Committee’s work.

Concerning MONUSCO, the Council unanimously adopted two resolutions, by each of which, acting under Chapter VII of the Charter, it extended the mandate of the Mission. On 29 March 2019, in resolution 2463 (2019), the Council extended the mandate of MONUSCO and the Intervention Brigade for nine months, until 20 December 2019, and expressed its intention to further adjust the mandate of MONUSCO following the publication of an independent strategic review of the Mission, aimed at assessing the continued challenges to peace and security in the country and articulating a phased, progressive and comprehensive exit strategy. The Council decided that the strategic priorities of MONUSCO were to contribute to: (a) the protection of civilians and (b) support for the stabilization and strengthening of State institutions in the Democratic Republic of the Congo and key governance and security reforms. The Council authorized MONUSCO, in pursuit of its mandated tasks, to take all necessary measures to carry out its mandate and requested the Secretary-General to immediately inform the Council should MONUSCO fail to do so. The Council also emphasized the importance of maintaining international support and engagement to bring the Ebola outbreak successfully to an end, and requested all relevant parts of the United Nations system to continue their work in response to the outbreak, noting the positive role of MONUSCO in that regard. On 19 December, in resolution 2502 (2019), the Council again extended the mandate of MONUSCO and the Intervention Brigade for one year, maintaining the same strategic priorities. In the resolution, the Council also stressed the importance of a comprehensive dialogue between the Government of the Democratic Republic of the Congo and MONUSCO on the progress of the political and security reform agenda, requested the Secretary-General to engage with the Government of the Democratic Republic of the Congo to articulate a joint strategy and identify a set of measurable benchmarks, to be proposed to the Council no later than 20 October 2020, that would allow for a progressive transfer of the Mission’s tasks to the authorities of the Democratic Republic of the Congo, the United Nations country team and other stakeholders. The Council also took note of the assessment stemming from the independent strategic review that an “absolute minimum” transition period of three years was required before the Mission’s exit, adding that the tentative timeline would have to remain flexible and take into account the security situation.
