June 2021 at a Glance

In June, under the Presidency of Estonia, the Security Council conducted most of its business in-person. In addition, the Council held three signature events:

- Three open videoconferences focused on Afghanistan (22 June), children and armed conflict (28 June), and cybersecurity (29 June). The President, Prime Minister and Minister for Foreign Affairs of Estonia presided over the videoconferences on 28 June, 29 June, and 22 June, respectively.

In June the Council also held in-person, for the first time since 2019, the annual meetings on cooperation with the European Union (10 June), and on its working methods (16 June).

Key Topics

The most frequently considered country or region-specific items in open and closed discussions were: the Middle East (3, 14, 15, 23, and 25 June) and Sudan and South Sudan (9, 14, and 21 June). Council members also discussed under other matters (AOB): the Central African Republic, the Democratic Republic of Congo, Working Methods, and Ukraine.

Other country or region-specific discussions considered by the Council in June included: Bosnia and Herzegovina, Central African Region, Haiti, Mali, Middle East including the Palestinian question, Myanmar, and Somalia.

Other thematic items discussed in the Council included International Residual Mechanism for Criminal Tribunals (8 June) and Non-proliferation (30 June).

The Council also held closed meetings in-person with troop-and-police contributing countries to MINUSMA (7 June) and UNDOF (10 June).
