

New Pathways to End Poverty Amid Converging Crises: A UN DESA Global Policy Dialogue

Thursday, 17 October 2024
10:00-11:15 a.m. EDT (New York time)
SDG Studio, UN Headquarters, and online

Programme

Introduction (8 minutes)

- Shakuntala Santhiran, moderator

Video from UN DESA on “World Social Report 2024” (3 minutes)

Discussion 1: Overcoming the effects of converging crises on poverty (35 minutes)

- Shantanu Mukherjee, Director, Economic Analysis and Policy Division, UN DESA
- Jayati Ghosh, Professor of Economics, University of Massachusetts at Amherst, and member of the UN High-level Advisory Board on Economic and Social Affairs
- Shahra Razavi, Director of the Universal Social Protection Department, International Labour Organization

Video from UN Department of Global Communications on “Ending Poverty and Hunger” (2 minutes)

Discussion 2: New pathways for ending social and institutional maltreatment related to poverty (25 minutes)

- Maryann Broxton, Main Representative to the United Nations, ATD Fourth World
- Nancy Santos, Assistant Director, Project Access

Wrap-up and closing (2 minutes)

- Moderator