

Episode 2:

Educating against Racism

Guest

Karen Polak, Anne Frank House, Stories that Move

Moderated by Tracey Petersen, United Nations

| NEXT EPISODE: Radio and Reconstruction

Karen Polak is a senior staff member at the Anne Frank House in Amsterdam. She is the international coordinator of "Stories that Move. Toolbox against discrimination", a project supported by the European Commission and the EVZ Foundation and developed with partners in seven European countries. She was member (2001-2017) of the Dutch governmental delegation to the International Holocaust Remembrance Association (IHRA) where she chaired the committee on the genocide of the Roma. She is a historian who has worked extensively in publishing and education.