

Credibility Matters
Net zero transition plans and regulatory support
20 September 2023, 2:00-3:00pm
ECOSOC Chamber United Nations Headquarters, New York

Moderator: Ms. Laurence Tubiana

President and CEO of the European Climate Foundation

Setting the Scene

- Ms. Catherine McKenna
Former Chair, High-Level Expert Group on the Net-Zero Emissions Commitments of Non-State Entities and former Minister of Environment and Climate Change as well as Minister of Infrastructure, Canada

Facilitated Discussion on why Credibility Matters?

The speakers will address the following questions: Why does credible net zero transition plans matter? Why is it difficult to do a credible transition plan? What support is needed to make the transition, how can governments, standard setters, and regulators support the efforts?

- Ms. Hindou Oumarou
President, Association for Indigenous Women and Peoples of Chad, Chad
- Ms. Sabine Mauderer
Vice and In-coming Chair, Network for Greening the Financial System
- Mr. Miguel Stilwell d'Andrade
Chief Executive Officer and Vice-Chairman of the Board of Directors, EDP, Portugal
- Ms. Barbara Zvan
President and Chief Executive Officer, University Pension Plan Ontario, Canada
- Mr. Jay Inslee
Governor of Washington State, United States of America
- Ms. Helena Viñes Fiestas
Chair, European Union Platform on Sustainable Finance, Spain
- Mr. Jean Paul Servais
President, International Organization of Securities Commission

Wrap up and way forward by the Moderator