

ENERGY COMPACT

Generic Template *

United Nations

HIGH-LEVEL DIALOGUE ON ENERGY
UNITED NATIONS, NEW YORK, SEPTEMBER 2021

* Updated 12 April 2021

Supported by

Energy Compact – Generic Template*

I. PRINCIPLES

II. VOLUNTARY COMMITMENT(S) (ELABORATION TO INCLUDE THE FOLLOWING DETAILS)

- a. Short description of voluntary commitment(s)
- b. Timeline of the commitment(s)
- c. Measurable indicators of progress [measurable and time-based deliverables]
- d. SDG 7 target covered [drop down menu, select all that apply]
- e. Strategy summary: Explain the commitment(s) impact on advancing SDG7, the 2030 Agenda, the Paris Agreement and realizing NDC commitments (if relevant) and achieving Net-Zero targets by 2030 and 2050 respectively [drop down menu, select all that apply – details may be explained in short description]
- f. Geographical coverage [drop down menu – global, regional (specify), national (specify), sub national (specify)]
- g. Beneficiaries [Number of people potentially impacted – if applicable]
- h. Intended role of Partnerships, private sector, cities etc. [if applicable]
- i. Finance and Investment required, including identifying any specific areas of support required [Examples of support for Member States could include: Access of low-cost affordable debt through strategic de-risking instruments];
- j. Enabling actions, including identifying any specific areas of support required [Examples of support for Member States could include: Capacity building in data collection; Development of integrated energy plans and energy transition pathways; other areas of support including technical assistance].

III. MONITORING AND REPORTING

IV. BASIC INFORMATION (LEAD ENTITY NAME/ ENTITY TYPE, CONTACT INFORMATION)

This generic template is intended to present main elements only and will be kept updated as and when needed. Detailed templates tailored to different stakeholders will be shared in due course*

Supported by

Contributing to

