

Transforming Systems Through Ethical Leadership:

Values as Catalysts for Climate and Development Synergies

Prof. Deliang Chen

IPCC Author,
Department of Earth
System Science
Tsinghua University

Sister Jayanti Kirpalani

International
spiritual Teacher,
Add. Ad. Head, The Brahma Kumaris
worldwide

Dr. Nsikan-George Emana

Senior Project
Manager, Bilateral
Cooperation & Intern.
Compliance
Foundation myclimate

Jeremy J. R. Dommnich

Senior Lecturer,
The Hague University
of Applied Sciences.
Expert in intern.
negotiations

Moderation:

Carolyn Fraude
Board Member
Brahma Kumaris
Germany, Affiliate
Scholar RIFS Potsdam

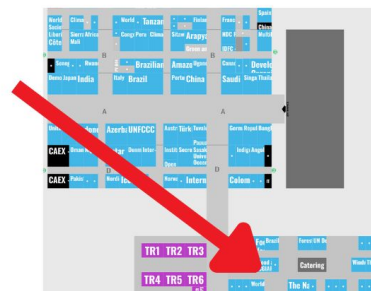

Thursday 20. November 2025 | 9:00-10:00h
SDG Pavilion (UN DESA)

Location of the Pavilion in Area E:

More Information:

brahmakumaris.org/r/EthicalLeadership

Partners

Transforming Systems Through Ethical Leadership: Values as Catalysts for Climate and Development Synergies

This session explores how embedding ethical considerations and values as guiding principles can fundamentally transform decision-making cultures, problem-solving approaches, and system design.

Speaker and Moderation

Jayanti Kirpalani – UK/India, Additional Administrative Head, Brahma Kumaris; UN Representative (spiritual and ethical perspectives on resilience) UK/India

Jeremy J.R. Dommnich, Senior Lecturer, The Hague University of Applied Sciences. Expert in international negotiations

Dr. Nsikan-George Emana, Senior Project Manager, Bilateral Cooperation and International Compliance Foundation myclimate

Prof. Deliang Chen, IPCC Author, Department of Earth System Science, Tsinghua University

Moderation: Carolin, Fraude, Board Member, Brahma Kumaris Germany, Affiliate Scholar RIFS Potsdam