16 July | Launch of UN Legal Identity Agenda
1:15 p.m. to 2:15 p.m. | TBC
Hundreds of millions of people worldwide do not have a legal identity, and remain at higher risk of trafficking, exploitation, becoming stateless, and being denied access to justice and legal protection. During HLPF, the United Nations will launch its call to action in support of the Legal Identity Agenda 2020-2030. Backed by the UN Deputy Secretary-General, the Agenda will support countries’ efforts to reduce the global identity gap by over 300 million people by 2025.

16 July | Launch of the Start-up Fund for Safe, Orderly, and Regular Migration
6 p.m. to 7 p.m. | UNICEF House
The UN Network on Migration will launch the Start-up Fund for Safe, Orderly and Regular Migration (Migration MPTF), which will be the only funding mechanism fully dedicated to supporting collective action on migration. It will also ensure that mutual trust, determination and solidarity amongst countries and with other stakeholders can be fostered to support the objectives of the Global Compact for Safe, Regular and Orderly Migration (GCM).
16 & 17 July | Local Action for Global Commitments Event
The United Nations in collaboration with Local2030 will convene the Local Action for Global Commitments special event to focus on the local dimensions of the SDGs. It will also provide a space for discussions on Voluntary Local Reviews (VLRs) - a new modality of reporting on the SDGs that is increasingly being adopted by cities and local governments around the world.

16 to 18 July | Ministerial Segment
9 a.m. to 6 p.m. | Conference Room 4, UNHQ
The Ministerial Segment will feature high-level speakers, including the UN Secretary-General, the President of the Economic and Social Council, and other keynote speakers. More details will be available soon.
