Including a total of 8,818 non-eligible children attending UNRWA-UNESCO schools. Non-eligible may refer either to non-eligible refugee children or to non-refugees. In Jordan, non-refugee children in Agency schools are offset by reducing the subsidies payable to the Government in respect of refugee pupils attending government schools. The Government of Syria and the Authorities in Gaza partially offset the cost by providing teachers. In Lebanon, non-eligible refugees pay school fees.

East Jordan only.
