International Day of Solidarity with the Palestinian People

The Philippines is one with the global community in commemorating the International Day of Solidarity with the Palestinian People.

The Philippines stands in unity with the Palestinian people in achieving our collective aspirations for enduring peace, shared prosperity, and statehood for the Palestinian people as embodied in United Nations Resolution 181.

The Philippines continues to adhere to a two-state solution and fully supports all United Nations initiatives that are intended to revive the peace process and ultimately to achieve lasting peace in the Middle East.
