Gisha informed that it filed a letter notifying COGAT that it will take legal actions if the group's exit from Gaza, be it via Rafah or a direct crossing into Israel, is not arranged without further delay.
- On 18 April, Peace Now informed that Israel's Housing Ministry has published a tender for the construction of 1,047 housing units in the Lower Aqueduct neighbourhood, located in occupied East Jerusalem. Peace Now warned that the strategic plan will severely impact the possibility of a continuous urban Palestinian connection in East Jerusalem, as it blocks the last corridor remaining for connecting the Palestinian neighbourhoods of Beit Safafa and Sur Baher with other parts of East Jerusalem.
- On 17 April, Al-Haq, Addameer for Prisoner Support and Human Rights Association, Palestinian Centre for Human Rights, Al Mezan Centre for Human Rights and the Women's Centre for Legal Aid and Counselling \(WCLAC\) reminded of their joint urgent appeal to 11 UN Special Procedures, and the UN Commission of Inquiry. The appeal called for the latter's urgent intervention in light of the alarming increase in distressing reports of torture, and other cruel, inhumane, or degrading treatment or punishment inflicted upon Palestinian prisoners and detainees in Israeli prisons since the start of the Gaza War.
- On 17 April, the Palestinian Centre for Human Rights \(PCHR\) sent an urgent appeal to save the lives of patients with blood diseases and genetic disorders in the Gaza Strip. PCHR warned of the chronic shortage of medicines, inflicting serious life-threatening implications to the health of this category of patients. It reiterated its call on the international community to exert pressure on Israel to end its military aggression and siege on Gaza, and called on the Occupying power fulfil its responsibility to ensure respect and protection of the right to health of Palestinians in Gaza to the full extent of its actual control.
- On 17 April, Addameer – Prisoner Support and Human Rights Association issued an urgent appeal, highlighting Israeli crimes committed against Palestinian prisoners and calling those in solidarity with Palestinian political prisoners to address both the Israeli military central command, who issues and signs thousands of orders for arbitrary administrative detention, and the Head of Israeli Prison Service responsible for all crimes committed against prisoners.
- On 16 April, Al-Haq, Al Mezan Centre for Human Rights and the Palestinian Centre for Human Rights \(PCHR\) urged the international community, private actors and business to respond to the widespread violent attacks against Palestinians and their property across the West Bank. They called on Third States to prohibit the import of illegal settlement goods and services into their territories, on corporations and financial institutions to divest and disengage from Israel's illegal settlement enterprise and on States to suspend military assistance and apply a two-way arms embargo on Israel.

- On 13 April, Al-Haq issued a legal position paper on UN Security Council resolution 2728 demanding a ceasefire in Gaza, underlining how it is legally binding on all States. The requirement builds on the UN General Assembly resolution of December 2023, demanding an immediate humanitarian ceasefire. Al-Haq called upon the Security Council to take more coercing measures to enforce the present resolution, including economic and individual sanctions and arms embargo to hold Israel accountable.

Asia and Europe

- On 17 April, Association France Palestine Solidarité issued a press release on the International Day of Solidarity with Palestinian Political Prisoners, to denounce the permanent and institutionalized violation of international law by Israel. One of the documents, entitled “Briefing on the Situation of Palestinian Administrative Detention Prisoners Post-October 7”, was handed over to the Working Group on Arbitrary Detention. The briefing describes severe mistreatment of detainees, including torture, degrading treatment and denial of fundamental rights such as access to medical care and legal representation.

North America

- On 29 April, the Columbia University Center for Palestine Studies will hold the talk “Palestine, Denialism and the Question of Genocide”, featuring Ussama Makdisi of the University of California, Berkeley. The talk aims to draw attention to a long history of the denial of Palestinian history and humanity; it will chart how Palestinians were removed from the World's serious ethical and political consideration, and the implication of this erasure.
- On 17 April, Human Rights Watch stated that the Israeli military either took part in or did not protect Palestinians from violent settler attacks in the West Bank that have displaced people from 20 communities and have entirely uprooted at least 7 communities since 7 October. It warned that while the attention of the world is focused on Gaza, abuses in the West Bank are soaring. Human Rights Watch investigated attacks that forcibly displaced all residents of a number of areas in the occupied West Bank, in October and November 2023.

- On 14 April, Jewish Voice for Peace \(JVP\) issued a press release calling for the United States administration to use its leverage to enforce calls for regional ceasefire, including an immediate end to US military funding and weapons sales to the Israeli government, amid its unfolding genocide against Palestinians in Gaza. - On 14 April, UN Secretary-General Guterres delivered a statement to the Security Council for the quarterly briefing on the situation in the Middle East. He stated that there was a shared responsibility to secure an immediate humanitarian ceasefire in Gaza, the immediate and unconditional release of all hostages, and the unimpeded delivery of humanitarian aid.
