

UNRWA Installations and Services: Occupied East Jerusalem (December 2024)*

"East Jerusalem" is the territory located between the 1949 Armistice Line and the East Jerusalem municipal boundary prior to June 1967, and also other occupied territory further east of the Armistice Line falling within what the Israeli authorities consider to be the municipal boundaries of Jerusalem. Following the occupation of the West Bank in 1967, Israel unilaterally annexed East Jerusalem along with these surrounding parts of the West Bank and imposed its legal jurisdiction and administration therein. The UN does not recognize the annexation of East Jerusalem, which is considered to be contrary to international law¹.
