

Leaving No One Behind: Mother Teresa's Enduring Message for the International Community Today

September 9, 2016 • 3-5:30 pm
Conference Room 3 • UN Headquarters

Permanent Mission of India to the United Nations,
New York

In celebration of the September 4 Canonization of Mother Teresa of Calcutta, the Permanent Observer Mission of the Holy See to the UN, together with ADF International and the Permanent Missions of India, Albania, Italy and the Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia, will be hosting a Conference dedicated to the enduring message of her words, witness and work. The Conference will feature an international array of speakers, including some of those closest to her.

Many of Mother Teresa's spiritual daughters, the Missionaries of Charity, will be in attendance as will those served by the Missionaries of Charity in the New York area. All members of the United Nations Community and others interested are cordially invited to attend.

Permanent Mission of the Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia to the United Nations

Program

Opening Remarks	H.E. Bernardito Auza, Permanent Observer of the Holy See to the UN Mr. Alan Sears, President, CEO and General Counsel, ADF International
Speakers	Fr. Leo Maasburg, Mother Teresa and the Poorest of the Poor Kathryn Spink, Mother Teresa and Leaving No One Behind Fr. Daniel Jones, Mother Teresa as Peacebuilder and Peacemaker Sr. Clare Roy, MC, Local Superior, Missionaries of Charity Permanent Representatives of India, Albania, Italy and the Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia

All those interested in coming to the September 9 Conference are asked to RSVP at holyseemission.org/rsvpSeptember9.