The Seminar Background and program

A seminar to be held on the sidelines of the General Assembly of the United Nations, organized by the ANHHRI General Administration, with support of the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights on October 3, 2017 from 10:30 to 12:30, Room #12 United Nations Headquarters, New York, USA.

The seminar will introduce participants to the Arab network of national human rights institutions and its role in the promotion and protection of human rights in the Arab region.

The aim of the seminar is to identify and introduce stakeholders to the origin of the network, its role, functions, objectives, activities, areas of cooperation with its partners, what has been achieved so far and what is sought to be achieved in the future, and the role of OHCHR and UNDP as key partners in supporting Arab national human rights institutions to carry out their mandate.

The seminar comes within the context of the promotion of the role and presence of the network and raising awareness on its role, in the framework of obtaining support for the network and its role in the promotion and protection of human rights in the region, and opening up new prospects for future cooperation with all stakeholders sharing similar goals and vision.

The seminar will be facilitated by:

1. Chairpersons or representatives of member institutions of the Executive Committee of the Arab Network.
2. Chairpersons or representatives of ANNHRI institutions with full membership.
3. ANNHRI Executive Director.
4. ANNHRI Legal Advisor.
