

United Kingdom
Mission to the United Nations

Germany, the World Health Organization, and United Kingdom would like to invite you to a discussion on

"Linkages between Violence against Women and Health"

The meeting will take place on Wednesday, 6th of March 2013, 12.50 pm – 2.30 pm at the German House, 2nd Floor

871 United Nations Plaza
First Avenue at 49th Street, New York

Program

Welcoming remarks Ambassador Dr. Peter Wittig, Permanent Representative of Germany to the United Nations

Panel

- Ms. Claudia Garcia-Moreno, Team Leader for Sexual Health, Gender, Reproductive Rights and Adolescence, World Health Organization
Overview of the Prevalence and Health Consequences Worldwide
- Ms. Charlotte Watts, Head of the Gender Violence and Health Centre at the London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine
What works for prevention?
- Ms. Nicole Zündorf-Hinte, Advisor, Division „Protecting Women from Violence“, Federal Ministry for Family Affairs, Senior Citizens, Women and Youth, Germany
MIGG - Medical Intervention Project Against Violence
- Ms. Helene Reardon-Bond, Head of Policy, Home Office, Government Equalities Office, United Kingdom
Tackling violence against women and girls – from a health perspective

Chairwoman Ms. Renate Augstein, Director-General for Gender Equality Federal Ministry for Family Affairs, Senior Citizens, Women and Youth, Germany

Discussion

Light lunch will be served.

We sincerely hope that you will be able to join us and look forward to your participation.

Please kindly RSVP by March 5th to Ms. Anke Januszkiewicz pol-s2-vn@newy.auswaertiges-amt.de; Tel. (212) 940 0440.